Style of Wedding (Very Formal, Formal, Semi-Formal, Informal) _____

Very Formal: Held in church, synagogue or hotel ballroom, 200 or more guests. Bride wears traditional-styled gown with train. Bridesmaids wear floor-length dresses. Groom and ushers are in formal attire. Reception includes seated meal.

Formal: Ceremony takes place at a church, synagogue, hotel, club or private home. Guest list of 100. Bride may wear long or short dress. Bridesmaids wear short or long dresses. If evening event, groomsmen wear black tuxedos or, if daytime, they may choose gray strollers, waistcoats and striped trousers and ties. Reception is usually seated meal.

Semi-Formal: Ceremony takes place in church, synagogue, hotel, private home or other location. Fewer than 100 guests generally. Bridesmaids wear short or long dresses and soft colors are acceptable. Daytime ceremonies often include just one honor attendant and no bridesmaids. Dress for evening weddings is usually cocktail attire. For daytime, suits or short dresses are acceptable.

Informal: Ceremony is held in the daytime. Sites might include parks, the beach or a restaurant. Bride can wear a suit or a dress. Generally there is only one honor attendant, who also wears a suit or short dress. Groom and best man wear a suit or blazer and coordinating trousers.
